Anagram:

a word or phrase
made by using the letters of another word or phrase
in a different order

Try anagrams of...
your name,
your street,
your school.

Other places,
other people,
other things.

Words and phrases that catch your attention.

4

Appropriation: the act of taking something for your own use, usually without permission

in 3D, realD 3D AND IMAX 3D CINEMAS

Fact: The Sainsbury Centre was used as the location for Avengers HQ in The Age of Ultron movie.

Fiction: Superhero Bucket Man stayed behind after his fellow Avengers went. Why?

Write an Avengers story featuring Bucket Man, outline his superpowers and explain why he left. Could you draw it as a comic strip?

6

Collage: (the art of making) a picture in which various materials or objects, for example paper, cloth, or photographs, are stuck onto a larger surface

See also - Montage: a piece of work produced by combining smaller parts, or the process of making such a work

Make some collages. If you don't have scissors, just tear.

Toothpaste works as glue!

And you can add to this by collecting images and words that grab your interest.

8

Books, comics, postcards, magazines, the junk mail that falls through the letterbox and your own drawings, are all good.

9

Substitution: the use of one person or thing instead of another

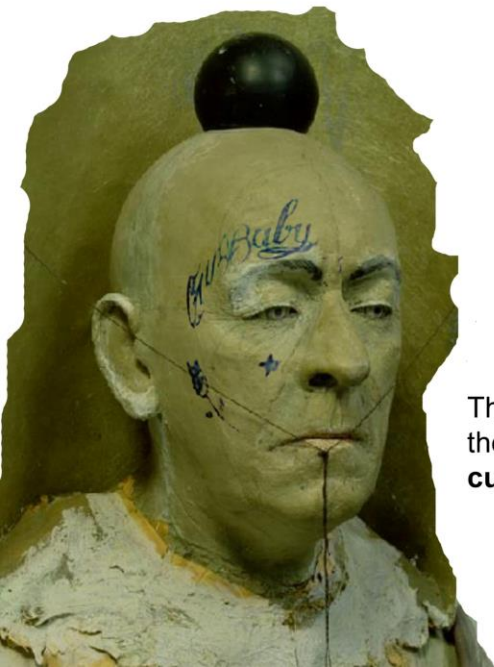

LOST

Symbol: a sign, shape, or object that is used to represent something else

10

Make a list of what you like to read, watch and listen to. (This could be in words, images, or both.) Add other things you do and make.

This explores the idea of your cultural capital
