

WELCOME to the SCULPTURE PARK
 This all used to be a golf course, but now it is part of the UEA and full of art. Entry to the park is free and you are welcome to explore.

WALKING ROUTE IDEAS:

- Short walk
Around 30 mins, no steps
- Long walk + + + + +
Around 60 mins, no steps
- Longer walk o o o o o o o o
Around 90 mins, with steps

ACTIVITIES

On the right are three activities you can do with any of the sculptures you can find. Why not make your visit into a treasure hunt? Colour the artworks you see on your walk.

FACILITIES: available from Tuesday - Sunday during gallery opening times

- Free parking ↘
- Park in the carpark opposite the Sainsbury Centre and pick up a permit from the Main Gallery Reception
- The Terrace cafe for a cuppa and a cake
- Modern Life Cafe for hungry explorers
- Toilets and changing facilities

For more information, or to download a more detailed map which includes information about the sculptures visit sainsburycentre.ac.uk

GAME ONE

1 SUPER-SIZE the sculpture by lying down near it and looking up. You are a tiny beetle.

2 SUPER-SHRINK the sculpture by running it far away until it looks like it fits in your out-stretched hand.

GAME TWO

1 Stare at the artwork for 30 seconds.
 2 Close eyes.
 3 Get your body into the sculpture's pose.

4 Deep breath in, deep breath out. (Repeat)

5 Someone make up a movement.
 6 Repeat the move in slow motion seven times.

GAME THREE

1 Read the title of the artwork.
 2 Forget it.
 3 Come up with a new name for the artwork.
 4 Perform a short renaming ceremony.

What?? This could include:

chanting, clapping, spinning or offering tiny gifts to the sculpture, like leaves.