

WORKSHOP - Art & WRITING

ARTIST - Justine Ashford

YEAR GROUP - Key Stage 3 to 5,

could be adapted to suit younger students.

DESCRIPTION

This workshop is an opportunity to respond creatively in writing to exhibits in the permanent Collection of the Sainsbury Centre.

The workshop will include looking at Robert Sainsbury's justification for the collection, My Criterion for Acquiring, and some work on short poetic forms such as Haiku.

You will be invited to look round the collection yourself and choose an artefact which appeals to you, responding to it in poetry or prose.

The emphasis will be on enjoyment and engagement with the artworks.

SKILLS AND THEMATIC LINKS Exploration of links between text & image...

LOCATION Sainsbury Collection galleries.

PRICES £150 Recommended as one 2 hour session.

NOTES Each 2hr session accommodates up to x30 students.

Sessions are typically 10-12:00 and 12:30-14:30pm.

