YEAR GROUP:	Key Stage 2 and 3
DESCRIPTION:	In this workshop students will use the objects in the Sainsbury Collection as inspiration for creative writing, poems and stories, both individually and collaboratively. They will be invited to look closely, to notice how they feel, to draw from their own experience, and to be ready to listen to the objects speak. Students will be encouraged to write with empathy, both for the objects, and for the people who made them and have engaged with them. They will deconstruct museum catalogue entries, and choose their own narrative for the objects.
