

WORKSHOP:	Life Drawing
ARTIST:	Paul Patrick Fenner
YEAR GROUP:	Key Stage 5
DESCRIPTION:	This workshop provides students with the opportunity to draw from a nude model, with support and guidance from experienced life drawing tutor Paul Patrick Fenner. Over the course of the day students will create a number of drawings, from quick warm-up exercises to build confidence to more sustained, considered, complete drawings to add to their portfolios. We will take inspiration from the Sainsbury Centre's collection of figurative sculpture and drawing, referring to works by Giacometti, Moore and others. The students will all be able to work on easels to create drawings of different scales, from a variety of static and dynamic poses. Participants will be encouraged to try new techniques to develop their observation skills, and mark-making with a range of wet and dry media.
LOCATION:	Studio
PRICE:	£500
NOTES:	This is a full day session, with approx 4 hours of tuition, suitable for up to 15 students. Times are typically 10-12:00 then 12:30-14:30.
